UFSC: A University for all

The Universidade Federal de Santa Catarina's (UFSC) main campus is located in Florianópolis, capital of Santa Catarina state. Founded on December 18th, 1960, with the goal of promoting teaching, research and extension, UFSC is a free and public university, valued as the fifth best in Brazil, the sixth in Latin American and the 205th in the world, according to the Webometrics Ranking of World Universities, 2013.

From the 1980's onwards, the public institution began to invest intensively in the expansion of graduate courses and on research, in addition to supporting the creation of technology centers in the state of Santa Catarina and the development of a series of social projects.

Currently, UFSC has over 35.000 students enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs; distance, technical, elementary and infant education; and high school. It also has about 3.000 administrative staff and more than 2.000 faculty members, the vast majority of them with doctoral degrees.

Moreover, the University grants more than 10.000 scholarships to undergraduate students and has a library with more than 600.000 publications.

In 2009, the University increased its education opportunities by creating three campuses in other cities of Santa Catarina: Araranguá, Curitibanos and Joinville. In addition, UFSC has been focusing on internationalizing itself through cooperation with educational institutions around the world. UFSC has more than 300 active international agreements with 38 countries.

Committing itself to excellence and solidarity has helped UFSC achieve high levels of general qualification, participating in the construction of a more just and democratic society.

FLORIANÓPOLIS, SANTA CATARINA

Florianópolis, the capital of Santa Catarina, also known by its nickname “Floripa”, offers the comfort of a developed urban center whilst maintaining its intimate contact with nature. Sea, hill-sides and more than 42 beaches all make this wonderfully conserved scenery.

Most of the city lies on the long slender Santa Catarina island, which is 54 km long and 18 km wide. The city's population, according to the census conducted in 2011, is 427,298 residents. Tourism forms the basis of the local economy, causing the population to triple during summer months.
